

Music Delight

As I standing in line, waiting for the endless time

I travel to a world I own, considered as a different kind of solution, illusion, confusion that really makes a contribution by using my music mind

Have I ever told you why I'm happy when I'm riding with the float of sunlight
the glowing spotlight

Everybody needs a place to hide and run away from everything that wants to occupy the emotion, devotion, commotion that makes you humble to the notion of leaving your life behind

Have I ever told you why I'm happy when I'm riding with the float of
sunlight
the glowing spotlight
It's like a rocket ride along the turning tide, following the dressed up moonlight
My music delight

My music delight, and my sunny daylight

My glowing spotlight, and my dressed up moonlight

My music delight, my sunny daylight

Have I ever told you why I'm happy when I'm riding with the float of
sunlight
the glowing spotlight
It's like a rocket ride along the
moonlight
My music delight
